

Here are some frequently asked questions that may be helpful to your understanding of the Refuse To Be A Victim[®] program.

Q: Is this a self-defense course?

A: It is a personal safety program that teaches strategies you can use to avoid situations where self-defense is required. This course focuses on proactive courses of action, rather than reactive. Criminals prefer easy targets. By making yourself more difficult to prey upon, you lessen your risk of criminal attack. That means having a personal safety strategy in place before you need it.

Q: Who can attend the seminars?

A: The Refuse To Be A Victim[®] seminar covers topics that pertain to both men and women. The information covered is appropriate for young adults to senior citizens. In addition, the Refuse To Be A Victim[®] program materials also include a special teaching module for parents which discusses tips for children ages pre-school to college. Women-only seminars are also available.

Q: Is there a fee, and what does it cover?

A: Seminar fee is $40 per person. The fees cover instructor time, and all materials distributed to seminar attendees, including the Refuse To Be A Victim[®] Student's Handbook.

Q: Can I organize a "private" seminar?

A: Refuse To Be A Victim[®] seminars can be conducted for private corporations, businesses, and other groups and clubs. The flexible, comprehensive curriculum can be custom-tailored to fit your group's needs.

Q: What is the minimum number needed for a "private" seminar?

A: There needs to be a minimum of 6 people in a "private" seminar.

Q: What discounts are available for my group?

A: Please contact us directly so we may discuss discounts available to groups.